

Lewine Global Engagement Fund

The Lewine Global Engagement Fund will be used to enhance SUNY Brockport's efforts to build a generation of leaders and innovators who have a deep understanding of other cultures through international experiences and global engagement. The Lewine Family has committed to a gift of $300,000 over the next five years. The funds will be used to support the following areas:

1. Global Business Leadership Program – Collaborative study abroad program with a service learning component between the Center for Global Education & Engagement and the School of Business and Management. Students learn about corporate social responsibility and global engagement within the framework of an international experience. This program will be led by a faculty or staff member from the SOBAM and be available to any student at SUNY Brockport regardless of major. Funds provided will help defray the cost of participation.
2. Global Education and Engagement Scholarships - provide scholarships that will support Brockport students who 1.) Participate in study abroad experiences and 2.) International students attending SUNY Brockport.
3. Outstanding Global Engagement Awards – in recognition of both Dr. Victor Rojas and in memory of Dr. Francisco Zayas. Designed to encourage and recognize outstanding faculty and professional staff who advance internationalization and global engagement efforts in teaching and learning. On an annual basis, faculty and staff will apply or be nominated for funding of up to $10,000 to support an activity or program of their design that promotes and supports the College's global education efforts and initiatives.

Steve Lewine '80

Steve Lewine is a graduate of SUNY Brockport where he double majored in International Business and Spanish. The first in his family to go to college, Steve chose to attend Brockport based on the reputation of the Spanish program. While at Brockport, Steve participated in three international programs, spending two summers studying Spanish in Cuernavaca, Mexico, and attending McGill University in Canada his senior year.

After Brockport, Steve earned his Master's in International Management from Thunderbird School of Global Management in Phoenix, Arizona and his MBA from the Esade Business School in Barcelona, Spain. Steve had a very successful international banking career for over 20 years and credits Brockport with starting him on this path.

Steve is currently a Senior Vice President, Senior Portfolio Manager and Financial Advisor for Morgan Stanley and has been in the wealth management business for 17 years. Steve advises high net worth and ultra-high net worth individuals and families on all aspects of their financial lives.

Steve's life is enriched by his passion for serving global communities and working with young people. Steve and his wife Julie are committed to philanthropy and making an impact on the lives of others.

Interested in making a gift to support the Lewine Global Engagement Fund?
Contact Becki Schicker at rschicker@brockport.edu or 585-395-5227.